Botox Party

Host a Botox party. We open our facility for your private party. As the host, you will receive a free Botox treatment (up to 20 units). We want to make your party as successful as possible. So let's lay it out for you. Palmetto Med Spa will provide invitations, light appetizers, nonalcoholic beverages, and a safe sterile environment for your event. We will offer special pricing only available during the event. Other spa services will be available during the event. You are only responsible for providing guests who are excited about learning and receiving Botox treatments. You can expect the party to last around 3-4 hours. You guests should all be 18 years of age or older. There are only a few things you should do before the party:

- ~Send out Invitations and informational inserts provided
- ~Call your guest 2-3 days before the party to remind them about the event
- ~Think about how good you will feel after you receive your free Botox treatment.
